

Joshua 11

King James Version (KJV)

11 And it came to pass, when Jabin king of Hazor had heard those things, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph,

²And to the kings that were on the north of the mountains, and of the plains south of Chinneroth, and in the valley, and in the borders of Dor on the west, (Chinneroth – later named Jenseret, where Jesus later visited)

³And to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpeh. (Mizpeh = watchtower) (There were still hybrid giant descendants of the fallen angels among these tribes. God sentenced them to death for this and their other perversions. Their bodies died, but not their souls)

(During the Millennium, they will have the chance to repent and learn in order to save their souls; to live with God in the eternity. Some may have already found salvation when Jesus went to them immediately following the crucifixion)

⁴And they went out, they and all their hosts with them, much people, even as the sand that is upon the sea shore in multitude, with horses and chariots very many.

⁵And when all these kings were met together, they came and pitched together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel. (They have the high ground, a supply of water and a huge army. This gives them a clear advantage over Israel)

⁶And the LORD said unto Joshua, Be not afraid because of them: for to morrow about this time will I deliver them up all slain before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burn their chariots with fire. (This was done to permanently destroy their war machines; so they can't regroup and attack)

(One person with God makes a majority. No one can stand against God, no matter how powerful their army)

⁷So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly; and they fell upon them. (The enemy wasn't prepared)

⁹ And Joshua did unto them as the LORD bade him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their chariots with fire. (To keep them from attacking later)

¹¹ And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them: there was not any left to breathe: and he burnt Hazor with fire. (A sword cannot kill a soul. Their bodies died but not their souls. God ended their lives in the flesh to end their perversion for having mated with the fallen angels. God didn't want them to mate with Israel. Satan was using these giant hybrids to pollute the seed line that would later bring Jesus Christ – God in the flesh)

(After Jesus was crucified, he went to Paradise to preach to all people including these people. Many accepted Him and were saved to receive eternal life with God)

¹² And all the cities of those kings, and all the kings of them, did Joshua take, and smote them with the edge of the sword, and he utterly destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. (Moses was relaying the commands of God to Joshua)

¹⁵ As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. (Joshua was loyal to God, as Moses was)

¹⁷ Even from the mount Halak, that goeth up to Seir, even unto Baalgad in the valley of Lebanon under mount Hermon: and all their kings he took, and smote them, and slew them. (Baalgad- a place where the heathen tribes worshipped Baal)

¹⁸ Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.

¹⁹ There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites the inhabitants of Gibeon: all other they took in battle. (This was the big mistake; this is where the Nethanim came from, to corrupt the worship of God, over the coming centuries. They eventually took over the priesthood of Israel from the lazy Levites)

²⁰ For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, that they should come against Israel in battle, that he might destroy them utterly, and that they might have no favour, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. (God destroyed them because they had bred with the fallen angels to produce giant offspring and because they hated God. They also practiced sexual perversions and human sacrifices of their own children)

See Jude, Genesis-6 (Satan sent his fallen angels to mate with flesh women. They produced giant offspring hybrids. His plan was to pollute the seed line that Jesus would later come through. God didn't allow him to succeed. HE ordered them wiped out completely)

²³ So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD said unto Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance unto Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. And the land rested from war.
