

Psalm 36

A Psalm of David, God's servant, by David

King James Version (KJV)

36 The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. Romans-3:18

²For he flattereth himself in his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful.

³The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good. (iniquity= emptiness, vanity)

⁴He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

⁵Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.

⁶Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. (great mountains= the mountains of El, of God)

⁷How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

⁸They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. Rev-22:1

⁹For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light. Jer-2:13, Rev-21:23

¹⁰O continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart.

¹¹Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me. (the wicked= the wicked one)

¹²There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and shall not be able to rise. (Prophetic – at the white throne judgment) see Rev-20:11
