

Joshua 2

King James Version (KJV)

2 And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into an harlot's house, named Rahab, and lodged there. (She was no harlot; she was a merchant of fine linen. Men called her a harlot; God didn't. Men were jealous of her business savvy and her financial success. She was a linen merchant, not a "harlot". In fact, she would go on to become a part of the genealogy of Jesus)

(We still see this type of prejudice today, 3500 years later. Women who succeed in business are usually rumored against and derided by unsuccessful men who are envious. Human nature hasn't changed much)

²And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel to search out the country. (They found out that there were spies in the land)

³And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

⁴And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

⁵And it came to pass about the time of shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whither the men went I wot not: pursue after them quickly; for ye shall overtake them. (She led the kings men on a wild goose chase. She was protecting the Israelites who came to her)

⁶But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof. (She used the flax to weave fine linens. That was her business. She lodged linen buyers in her house, because there were no hotels in those days) (Men called her a harlot for it, God didn't)

⁷And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

⁸ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

⁹ And she said unto the men, I know that the LORD hath given you the land, and that your terror is fallen upon us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint because of you. Deuteronomy-2:25 (It was common knowledge that God was protecting Israel) (She was obeying God by cooperating with the Israelites. She knew that God gave them the Promised Land)

¹⁰ For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red sea for you, when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did unto the two kings of the Amorites, that were on the other side Jordan, Sihon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. (Sihon and Og – were giants. Hybrid descendants of the fallen angels who mated with human women who descended from Adam and Eve) see Genesis-6

¹¹ And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath. (She believed the Word of God and was willing to serve Him)

¹² Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the LORD, since I have shewed you kindness, that ye will also shew kindness unto my father's house, and give me a true token: (Her father's house – this is a figure of speech which means her whole family)

¹³ And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

¹⁴ And the men answered her, Our life for yours, if ye utter not this our business. And it shall be, when the LORD hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee. (They agreed)

¹⁵ Then she let them down by a cord through the window: for her house was upon the town wall, and she dwelt upon the wall. (Jericho was a walled city)

¹⁶ And she said unto them, Get you to the mountain, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and afterward may ye go your way. (She was sending them in the opposite direction from their pursuers)

¹⁷ And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

¹⁸ Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household, home unto thee. (House of Ulster – the red thread people are her descendants. This is history, not Biblical)

¹⁹ And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be guiltless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him. (Stay in the house and you'll be safe)

²⁰ And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast made us to swear. (If you tell on us, the deal is off)

²¹ And she said, According unto your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and she bound the scarlet line in the window. (The scarlet thread was the signal to Israel to spare the people in this house. These people weren't traitors. They knew of God and wanted to join Israel in serving yahoveh – the true God)

²² And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned: and the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

²³ So the two men returned, and descended from the mountain, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

²⁴ And they said unto Joshua, Truly the LORD hath delivered into our hands all the land; for even all the inhabitants of the country do faint because of us. (Not because of them; because of God's might hand. These people waste no time in taking credit for the works of God. God freed them from Egypt. God kept them alive in the desert for 40 years. God gave them the victory on the east side of Jordan. God will give them the victory here)

(The same way that God will protect the Elect who are delivered up before the synagogue of antichrist – to testify before the people of the earth. Their testimony will wake up a lot of people who will be fooled by Satan. They will bring down the one world system that antichrist will have set up)
