

Judges 4

King James Version (KJV)

4 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. (did evil- in Hebrew is – they did THE evil = idolatry; once again, they abandoned God when their troubles had ended)

² And the LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles. (Jabin is thought to be a title, not a name. In Joshua-11, Joshua also defeated a Jabin, 100 years earlier)

(The Canaanites had rebuilt their cities because Israel did not completely wipe them out, as God had commanded them. Disobey God, pay the price)

³ And the children of Israel cried unto the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel. (They had abandoned God, so He left them)
(Chariots of iron had 2 foot long knife blades attached to the wheels. They would spin with the wheels. This was used to kill footmen of the enemy army)

⁴ And Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time. (fourth judge) (Deborah= a bee)

⁵ And she dwelt under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. (Genesis-35:8 -> Rebecca had a nurse named Deborah. It is thought that she was buried under that palm tree, so the name)

⁸ And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go. (Barak was afraid of the enemy)

⁹ And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest shall not be for thine honour; for the LORD shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh. (Deborah is prophesying - the woman is not Debra. Jael will kill Sisera)

¹⁰ And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and he went up with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

¹¹ Now Heber the Kenite, which was of the children of Hobab the father in law of Moses, had severed himself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Zaanaim, which is by Kedesh. (Heber lived in the land of Kenites. He was not a Kenite.) (Hobab was the son of Jethro, and the brother in law of Moses, also a Medianite who lived in the land of Kenites. If he had been a Kenite by heritage, he could not have severed himself from them. He simply moved out of their land)

¹² And they shewed Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor. (They had spies keeping an eye on Israel)

(Sisera chose this place because chariots are heavy and need solid ground to maneuver on. God chose this place because He intends to turn the tables against Sisera)

river. Sisera's chariots sank into the mud and were stuck hard. It is documented in Chapter-5)

¹⁶ But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the host, unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword; and there was not a man left. (Chariots can also be translated teams <of horses>. After the chariots were stuck in the mud, they probably unhitched the horses so they could get away on them. Apparently the horses couldn't get unstuck either)

¹⁷ Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite. (Not Kenites by race, only by habitation. They were Medianites.) (To enter a woman's tent, when the husband was absent was also a death sentence at this time)

¹⁸ And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And when he had turned in unto her into the tent, she covered him with a mantle. (Jael was the wife of Heber. Mantle = A blanket or rug)

¹⁹ And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink; for I am thirsty. And she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him. (The milk would help him fall asleep)

²⁰ Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

²¹ Then Jael Heber's wife took a nail of the tent, and took an hammer in her hand, and went softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: for he was fast asleep and weary. So he died. (The women were in charge of putting the tents up or taking them down when the family would move on to better pastures)

²² And, behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples. 1Corinthians-1:27

²³ So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel.

²⁴ And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan. (Will they learn their lesson? No. They will fall away from God, back to idolatry again)
