

Numbers 9

King James Version (KJV)

(Moving back in time from previous chapters; this is a clarification of what was stated in other books of Moses)

9 And the LORD spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

<sup>2</sup>Let the children of Israel also keep the passover at his appointed season. (Passover, not Easter) (Keep the Passover even before entering into the Promised Land)

<sup>3</sup>In the fourteenth day of this month, at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shall ye keep it. (The next day began at sundown, not at midnight)

<sup>4</sup>And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

<sup>5</sup>And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel. (Evening on the 14th day is the beginning of the 15th day)

<sup>6</sup>And there were certain men, who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day:

<sup>7</sup>And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the LORD in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

<sup>8</sup>And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will hear what the LORD will command concerning you.

<sup>9</sup>And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, (Addendum to the Passover)

<sup>10</sup>Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

<sup>12</sup> They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it. (As the Passover offering for all, Jesus also had no bones broken at His crucifixion. HE became the Passover Lamb for all time. That ended all blood ordinances and sacrifices. Today, our offering to God is our love and our obedience to His Ten Commandments)

<sup>13</sup> But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbearth to keep the passover, even the same soul shall be cut off from among his people: because he brought not the offering of the LORD in his appointed season, that man shall bear his sin. (This term means death)

<sup>14</sup> And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the LORD; according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do: ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land. (Same rules for foreigners, living with Israel)

(Israel is now moving towards the Promised Land)

<sup>15</sup> And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning. Exodus-40:17

<sup>16</sup> So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night. (This is the presence of God)

<sup>17</sup> And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that the children of Israel journeyed: and in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

<sup>18</sup> At the commandment of the LORD the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the LORD they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle they rested in their tents. (God was leading them through the wilderness)

<sup>19</sup> And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the LORD, and journeyed not.

<sup>20</sup> And so it was, when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the LORD they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the LORD they journeyed.

<sup>21</sup> And so it was, when the cloud abode from even unto the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up, they journeyed.

<sup>22</sup> Or whether it were two days, or a month, or a year, that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed. Exodus-13:11
