

Matthew 28

King James Version (KJV)

28 In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

<sup>2</sup> And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. (This is Sunday morning – 3 ½ days after the crucifixion on Wednesday afternoon)

<sup>4</sup> And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. (They passed out)

<sup>5</sup> And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. (The women didn't pass out)

<sup>6</sup> He is not here: for he is risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

<sup>7</sup> And go quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. See Mathew-26:31-32 (Jesus already told them to meet Him in Galilee; they just weren't listening. This angel is Jesus, Himself, in angel form. Jesus was God with us. God in the flesh, not His "son", as people kept calling Him) (All Christian preachers don't teach this. They teach that Jesus was God's "son")

<sup>8</sup> And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

<sup>9</sup> And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him. (There is a more detailed account in the Book of Luke)

<sup>10</sup> Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

<sup>11</sup> Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

<sup>12</sup> And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, (A bribe to shut them up)

<sup>13</sup> Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. (It would be a death sentence to sleep on guard duty)

<sup>14</sup> And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. (Don't worry, we'll cover for you so you don't get executed – Yeah, right. These are murderers and liars)

<sup>15</sup> So they took the money, and did as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day. (These Jews are really Kenites. They still claim that that's what happened, even to this day)

<sup>16</sup> Then the eleven disciples went away into Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them.

<sup>17</sup> And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted. (We know that this was Thomas, from the Book of Luke)

<sup>18</sup> And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. (God, now having lived a mortal life in the flesh, knows what that entails as well. This experience makes judgment fair and equal for all. - i.e. No one will be able to say "You don't know what it was like to live in the flesh." HE does)

<sup>19</sup> Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: (Salvation was now open to all peoples of the world. In the book of Luke, Jesus went back to Paradise to offer salvation to all who had lived before He came as Jesus)

(The Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost- the three forms that God revealed Himself to us. This is ONE GOD, Three Offices – not a "trinity of three gods, as churches teach. EXAMPLE - A flesh man can have many offices – father, son, brother, uncle, nephew, etc...)

<sup>20</sup> Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.
