

1 Samuel 6

King James Version (KJV)

6 And the ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. (By now, the Philistines wanted to get rid of the Ark. They understood the power of God)

² And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the LORD? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place. (These are priests of Dagon, their god; the diviners are fortune tellers, astrologers or soothsayers)

³ And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a trespass offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you. (If you send it away with an offering of peace and we are still sick, then we will know the sicknesses were all just coincidence)

⁴ Then said they, What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. (The Philistines were made up of 5 major provinces or kingdoms)

⁶ Wherefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? when he had wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed? (They need to learn from what happened to Egypt when they fought against God)

⁷ Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them: (Cows that have never pulled a cart; the new cart was an attempt by the Philistines to show respect for God. They didn't know that God wanted the Ark carried with staves. God didn't punish them for it because they didn't know better)

⁸ And take the ark of the LORD, and lay it upon the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which ye return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by the side thereof; and send it away, that it may go. (That it may go back to Israel)

⁹ And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Bethshemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us: it was a chance that happened to us. (Don't drive the cart. If the cows don't find their way back to Israel by themselves, then they'll know God wasn't part of what happened to them)

¹⁰ And the men did so; and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home:

¹⁴ And the cart came into the field of Joshua, a Bethshemite, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt offering unto the LORD. (After they lost the Ark, there was to tabernacle in Shiloh. The Israelites probably set up altars in their own cities)

¹⁵ And the Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Bethshemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day unto the LORD.

¹⁶ And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

Askelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; (The 5 regions and major cities or regions of the Philistines)

¹⁸ And the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fenced cities, and of country villages, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD: which stone remaineth unto this day in the field of Joshua, the Bethshemite. (The word stone was added by the translators) (Abel should have been translated abin – probably a place)

¹⁹ And he smote the men of Bethshemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, even he smote of the people fifty thousand and threescore and ten men: and the people lamented, because the LORD had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter. (The Israelites showed less respect for God than the Philistines did. The Philistines were innocent in this respect, but Levites should have known how to respect God and His Ark)

(Bethshemesh is not a large city – the manuscripts read 1,170 men. This is a translation error. God is making it clear that idolatry and disrespect for God will not stand. These people were still up to their necks in idolatry. Opening the Ark was total disrespect to God. The Levites should have known better)

²⁰ And the men of Bethshemesh said, Who is able to stand before this holy LORD God? and to whom shall he go up from us? (Lesson learned; they are now paying attention)

²¹ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjathjearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the LORD; come ye down, and fetch it up to you. (There must have been priests in Kirjathjearim that were qualified and trained on how to handle the Ark)
