

Psalm 108

A Song or Psalm of David

King James Version (KJV)

108 O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing and give praise, even with my glory.

²Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake early.

³I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations. (A witness, so all will hear)

⁴For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth unto the clouds.

⁵Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and thy glory above all the earth;

⁶That thy beloved may be delivered: save with thy right hand, and answer me. (thy beloved- they beloved ones - plural)

⁷God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the valley of Succoth. Numbers-24:18

⁸Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver;

⁹Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia will I triumph. (The enemies of God are defeated)

¹⁰Who will bring me into the strong city? who will lead me into Edom? (strong city- probably Petra)

¹¹Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off? and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts? Revelation-19, Ezekiel-38 & 39

¹²Give us help from trouble: for vain is the help of man. (vain- false)

¹³Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.
